| Breakout Breakfast       | Oscar Wilde Ballroom | 8:00-8:45 AM    | Table Discussion by: You
Choose your morning roast (light, dark, or de-café) with a range of topics. Light roast options will offer attendees the opportunity to skim the surface of an OER topic, while dark roast options will encourage a deep, rich morning conversation. De-café tables will be provided for those who need minimal interaction to get their day started. |
| Opening Remarks          | Oscar Wilde Ballroom | 8:30-8:45 AM    | Welcome by: John Opper
Brief introduction and welcome of attendees to include conference logistics and accommodations.                                                                                   |
| Keynote Presentation     | Oscar Wilde Ballroom | 8:45-9:30 AM    | “Leading The Educational Transformation Towards Open” by: Una Daly, Director for the Community College Consortium for Open Educational Resources (CCCOER) at the Open Education Consortium
When an institution decides to promote open educational resources and practices to enhance student equity and achievement, a cultural shift begins. To ensure successful transition, committed leadership in student facing functions both in and out of the classroom are needed. This shift towards open leads to increased pedagogical choices and access that ultimately gives students greater ownership over their own learning and success. This keynote presentation will launch the attendees into transformational thinking as they engage with OER through the summit. |
